HER IDEAL.

Mrs. Medill McCormick addressed the Republican National Committee in its meeting at Washington last week, and said: "Our ideal, gentlemen," said Mrs. Medill McCormick, in her speech before the committee, "is that of an American America, where industrious and country-loving men and women may all win a happy competence and grow old secure from want and blessed in the promise of the growing generation."

That is the ideal we have been harping upon for so long a time, and we propose to harp upon it until we get it. We absolutely do not want a European-America, but an American-America, the ideal for which our fathers, and which, by the eternal, even if we have lost for a time, we are going to regain.

We have an awfully poor opinion of the party who forges a child's letter to Santa Claus to make fun of grown-ups. We are on the watch for the contributions of such scoundrels, who should be remanded to a desert island along with their affinities, the kaisers of the world. Let us have no more of these attempts to raise rackets. It is unseemly at any time, but especially so at Christmas time.

The London Daily Sketch says, speaking of the League of Nations: "Fortunately the world is foolproof and unsinkable. Wilson's fourteen points look like rusty barbed wire." Surely the Sketch does not mean to insinuate that we have a fool in charge of our affairs, but only a mistaken individual who should be in Utopia rather than in such a melting pot of nations as the United States.

Yes sy-r-r-h, anticypatin ther grare blow up on ther 7 Teenth we maid our wilyum, but nary event happened. Ther stars seamed ter bea es yoosyoool an we would hev gut them more crowded in our airdom eff sum one hed tintinnabulated us with er brick.—Pig Hollow Scout.

And now they say they are going to take off the excess profits tax, for the procurers thereof spend it anyway in riotous living and the tax man gets "nary a smell." Good idea.

ITEMS FROM MINING CITY

(From Our Special Correspondent)
The strike being settled, the miners resumed work Friday.

Miss Claytie Teague attended the Eastern Star Chapter meeting Saturday afternoon.

Lester Hatfield is moving from Whitwell to Dunlap.

Audience at the M. E. Church was not so large Sunday, owing to the inclement weather.

Miss Alvin Holloway, who teaches school on the mountain at Mt. Olivet, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Holloway.

Miss Ella Mae Adams, of Spencer Business College, Birmingham, Ala., is home for the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Eakin, of Alabama, have returned to Whitwell, and will make their home here again. Mr. Eakin is an employe of the T. C. I. Co.

Frank Bailey, son of A. J. Bailey, arrived in Whitwell Saturday night from Detroit, Mich., where he has been employed for sometime. He reports the climate very cold, compared with his former experienced winters in Tennessee.

Considerable moving has been taking place. A. J. Carson has taken the J. L. Shirley home for the winter, and John Cowan has taken the Carson house, which was formerly the Feeney property, in South Whitwell.

Jno. Mason, of the side, died Thursday a. m., of heart dropsy. He was an aged man. Burial Friday at the Walker cemetery under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. lodge. He is survived by a wife and several children.

An interesting movie was shown at the opera-house Thursday night, "Mothers of Liberty." Everyone seemed to enjoy it, and an extra picture is always well attended. It was boosted by the Boy Scouts, and they distributed the circulars, being led thru town by the show man, who brought the picture.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
